Figure 5.6 The first level of recursion: The point set P is divided evenly into Q and R by the line L, and the closest pair is found on each side recursively.