To find a maximum-size independent set in a forest F:

  Let S be the independent set to be constructed (initially empty)

  While F has at least one edge

    Let $e = (u, v)$ be an edge of F such that v is a leaf

    Add v to S

    Delete from F nodes u and v, and all edges incident to them

  Endwhile

  Return S